(Copyright, Issue by the United Press ) PARIS, Jan. 11 .- The verdict of guilty and the sentence of death in the trial of Auguste Vaillant, who threw the bomb in the chamber of deputies on December 9, was announced so late pescendar that there was no time for editorial comment in the press Nobody, however, could mistake the feeling of relief, both inside and outside of the Palace of Justice, when the result of the trial became known The verdict was a sign that the purors would

The men who raised these cheers are anarchists who abound in Design and properly their. Paris as elsewhere. They waste their sentiment upon men like Vaillant. It seems that Vaillant must now take his place beside Ravachol as an habitual thief, working out his criminal life with its criminal instructs and when caught, excusing himself by quoting vague and disjointed utterances of philosophers Nothing could have tickled the court more than the public prosecutor's reference comparing Herbert Spencer's theories of individual effort with the thief's litany, as formu-lated by the defense for men like Vail-

tant. M Labori avoided replying to the public prosecutor's comic sugges-tions. He declined to touch upon the moral philosophising that vindicates a thief as a social marty. He rested his appeal to the jury on the course to be found in Vaillant's early training

When the jury went out betting even on the guillotine or life servitude or twenty years. There was great dif-ference of opinions as to the jury's de-termination to deal with Vaillant as dangerous criminal When the verdlet was announced, it was cheered loudly, and the remark that the jurymen had done their duty was heard on every side

The last mail from Buenes Ayres brought a copy of La Press, in which was printed a letter written by Vail lant on the morning of the explosion to a friend in Argentine In this let ter Vaillant said that he meant to sig nalize the end of his life by a great public act, after which he would die without regret and in the conviction that he had worked for the cause of universal happiness. ### THE DEMOCRATS BARRICADE THE DOOR.

And Order the Sergeant-at-Arms Keep the Republicans Out-The Latter Storm the Chamber and Assert Their Rights

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 10.—The business of the democratic sonate opened with prayer, which, in the excitement yesterday, was forgotten. A resolu-tion directing the sergeant-at-arms to notify the four republican holdowers. Hoffmap, Skirm, Smith and Stokes, to attend the session at 10 o'clock to-morrow was adopted. If they do not appear to-morrow they are to be brought in under arrest.

Before the democratic senate journed until 10:30 to-morrow morning the sergeant at arms and doorkeep ers were instructed to lock up the chamber and barricade the doors from the inside, and when the republican senature arrived this afternoon and

"Now you're talking, Colonel," was heard from some one, and a shout of approval went up. The republican senutors gathered to discuss matter. Some of them counseled against disorder, but tol. Skirm, backed up by several colleagues, held that to enter "'When will you be back?' inquired the chamber was merely to maintain the witness, following the rig."

"'God only knows,' was the answer pert locksmiths were soon on hand pert locksmiths were soon on hand but could not work fast enough to sult the crowd, headed by Chairman Jack Graham, a well-known constable, and Col. W. H. Morrell, a well-known colored republican and agitator, of Es-sex. A huge plank was obtained from the cellar of the state house, and four stalwart republicans banged on the doors leeding to the men's gallery, and the republican senators were in posses-sion of, the chamber, and with them an excited crowd.

The excitement was now at fever heat, and messengers were sent inevery direction for the governor but he had left the building. Capt. Graham was the that to get into the gallery. He then jumped down to the floor of the chamber and opened the front doors by turning the keys and removing the barricade of chairs, heavy desks, etc.

Everybody who saw Al G. Fields' Cclumbian Minetrels when they made their first appearance in this city at the Grand last season, will remember the furore they created by the originality and novelty of the entertainment, and it is doubtfall if any minetrel organization ever gave such universal enterfaction as did this one. They will be seen again at the Grand opera house, Monday, January 15 for one night only, and the house will no doubt be crowded to its utmost capacity. This year every feature is entirely new and original, and a genuine novelty has been created for the first part, which for magnificence and beauty has never been equaled.

light." The New York Herald said:

Miss Jarbeau was on the stage nearly all the time, singing, danoing, working well, and earning the applanes she received. The company is cone of the best of its kind. There were thirteen young women in the cast, pretty and well dressed. The singing was warmly received. There were three comedians who were the cause of uncessing merriment. There are many good singers, who came in for their share of the epplanes. Altogether the performance was excellent, and we hope that Miss Jarbeau, if she must leave us, will not stay away so long.

A Tremendous Success!

The great clearing sale of Ladies Rochester made shoes at our house has been a tremendous success. The sizes are becoming somewhat broken and we are particularly anxious that our friends shall be able to be fitted while we have the correct sizes for them. We will continue to sell shoes originally made to se l at $4 per pair, which are worth that money now just the same as 1 we charged this regular price for them. The manufacturer, price to the jobber on these shoes was and still is far more than we charge you for them by the pair at retail We are still selling them, 500 pairs in all, at the un

TALKING FOR THE FAIR

Ex-Senator Johns has Spoken for Decatur—The Board is Hearing Other Speakers.

Rumor now Current that Peorla Barred Out-Some Sentiment Against Permanent Location by the Board

SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN | Springfield, Jan 11 -The State Board of Agriculture met in the Senate hamber of the state house at 10 s m, o day, to take final action on the perms nent location of the Illinois state fair, The cities in the contest-Springfield, Decatur Peoria and Bicomington - are well represented, and considerable log ed t eroled sebte lie no enob saw godior board was called to order with the presi dent David Gore, in the chair

It was first voted what sites which had seen abown by the several cities would be acceptable, and when it came to consider Decatur all were agreed that Fair Lawr Park, the old fair grounds west of the oity, was the best of any we had to offer It was then voted to invite expressions

rom the different points, and Decatur's claims were ably and fully presented by Ex Senator W. C Johns, who covered the whole ground and put our city in the best light Every advantage was touched upon and nothing was overlooked

For Springfield, Attorney Conkling spoke at some length and made a good

ocearbly not until to morrow PRORIA SEUT OUI There was a story out to day that

Peorias papers were not made out in proper form and that the board could not consider that point under the conditions imposed However the rumor lacks official confirmation and labria may not be shut out

SENTIMENT AGAINST LOCATION

There are some members of the board who are opposed to permanently locating the state fair. They are men from re mote parts of the state, who think by leaving the fair on wheels it may come their way some day. This element will not predominate. There is no doubt but the fair will be located permanently

It is difficult to tell now which city has the best of the contest. Decatur has made a spiendi l'exhibit, and at this writing her chances for victory look as bright as those of Springfield or any RCHOES IIOM LEORIA

After speaking of the slow of sites at Peoria yesterday to merahers of the state poard, the Journal of that city prints the following in its issue of last evening There are four memb is of the board who, from the location of their residence ship fee, $1.00 for each sinter the problem for the problem fo
